Re: Class III Permanent Gaming Enterprise License

Dear Ms. Stone;

Pursuant to my authority as Chairman of the Seneca Gaming Authority of the Seneca Nation of Indians, under the Seneca Nation of Indians Class III Gaming Ordinance of 2002, as amended, and pertinent sections of the Nation-State Gaming Compact between the Seneca Nation of Indians and the State of New York, including specifically Appendices "D" and "J" thereto, this letter will constitute American Gaming and Electronics, Inc., Class III Permanent Gaming Enterprise License, and its authority to furnish such Class III Gaming Supplies, Equipment or Services as may otherwise be appropriate under the American Gaming and Electronics, Inc. contract(s) with the Seneca Nation's Gaming Operation.

Yours truly,

Klint Nephew, Chairman
